

STATE OF KUWAIT

Directorate General of Civil Aviation

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Applications are invited from dedicated and qualified professionals (Kuwaiti Nationals only) to serve in Aviation Safety Department for the following positions:

S.No.	Positions	Minimum Qualification Requirements
01	Flight Operations Inspector	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The applicant shall have meteorological and climatological knowledge and experience.2. The applicant shall have experience in technical training and flight simulation training devices.3. The applicant shall be the holder of a valid Kuwait DGCA Airline Transport Pilot Licence with a current Type rating on one of the aircraft types, registered in Kuwait or on a type of aircraft with similar operational characteristics.4. The applicant shall have a minimum experience of 5000 flying hours as a Pilot-in-Command on large transport aircraft.5. The applicant shall be the holder of a valid Kuwait DGCA Authorized Flight Examiner "A" Certificate (Aircraft).6. The applicant must have a broad knowledge of the following:<ol style="list-style-type: none">a) Kuwait Civil Aviation Safety Regulations.b) International Civil Aviation Organization standards and recommended practices.c) EASA and FAA regulations.d) The Air Operators Policies and Standards.e) Special operations including;<ul style="list-style-type: none">◆ Low visibility operations.◆ Extended range operations by twin engines aircraft.◆ Minimum navigation performance specification and advance navigation concepts.◆ Reduced Vertical Separation Minima.◆ Performance Based Navigation (PBN)7. Preference will be given to the applicant having previous appointments in supervisory positions or management of Air Transport operations.8. The applicant shall have sound reputation for possessing high level of integrity, dedication, devotion and initiative.9. The applicant shall have sound qualities of tact, tolerance and impartiality.10. The applicant shall have good understanding of human nature and possess the ability to get along well with people.11. Preference will be given to the applicant who have SMS training and good SMS experience.12. The applicant shall have a sound record and reputation of adherence and compliance with regulations and safety standards and competency.13. The applicant shall have a broad knowledge about Aircraft Operations requirements.

02	Airworthiness Inspector	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The applicant shall have the relevant knowledge, background and appropriate experience related to aircraft continuing airworthiness management, as well as experience in the actual performance of maintenance and repair of airframes, power plants and aircraft systems or components. The knowledge, background and experience in continuing airworthiness management should include the following : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Aircraft maintenance program development, approval and control, including applicable reliability programs; b. Approval of modifications and repairs; c. Maintenance release; d. Applicability of Airworthiness Directives and Operational Directives with a continuing airworthiness impact; e. Correction or deferment of defects; f. Coordination of scheduled maintenance, the application of Airworthiness Directives, the replacement of life-limited parts and the inspection of components; g. Management of continuing airworthiness records; h. Mass and balance statement management; i. Airworthiness requirements of relevant parts of operations specifications; and j. Knowledge of quality systems. 2. The applicant shall be a holder of a valid DGCA Part 66 B1, B2 AME license, or equivalent ICAO recognized license. 3. The applicant shall have at least fifteen years of recent experience in hangar or line maintenance with an Approved Air Operator or Approved Maintenance Organization on at least three current locally operated aircraft, one of which shall be a wide body aircraft. 4. The qualifications, experience and competency of the applicant shall be of a range that compares favorably with those personnel of Kuwait DGCA Approved Maintenance Organizations and Kuwait DGCA approved Air Operators and ideally an Airworthiness Inspector should be qualified higher than the personnel to be inspected or supervised. 5. Preference will be given to the applicant having previous appointments in Engineering management, supervisory positions, and/or Quality Control/ Assurance positions. 6. The applicant must have a broad knowledge of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. ICAO standards and recommended practices. b. Kuwait Civil Aviation Safety Regulations. c. EASA and FAA regulations. d. Air Operator and Aircraft Maintenance Organizations policies and standards. 7. The applicant shall have sound reputation for possessing high level of integrity, dedication, devotion and initiative. 8. The applicant shall have sound qualities of tact, tolerance and impartiality. 9. The applicant shall have good understanding of human nature and possess the ability to get along well with people. 10. Preference will be given to the applicant who have SMS training and good SMS experience. 11. Fluent in written and spoken English language
----	--------------------------------	--

Applicants who meet the above criteria and are interested to work for the Directorate General of Civil Aviation should send their detailed Bio-data along with a copy of their qualification & work experience certificates directly to the 'General Registration Office' at the Directorate General of Civil Aviation.